Starlight Concerts 2018 Summer Concert Series Media Release

Starlight concerts are a Tulsa tradition and this year is our band's 72nd year to play music under the stars! The Starlight band is Oklahoma's only professional concert band and includes over 50 musicians. Conducting the band, is L. Dale Barnett, Starlight's artistic director. The Jazz Orchestra is led by Starlight's jazz director, Rich Fisher.

Starlight's concert series offers a variety of music, including patriotic, Broadway tunes, pops, big band music and jazz. There is truly "something for everyone".

Starlight's FREE concerts take place at Guthrie Green, 111 East Brady Street, in Tulsa's vibrant Brady Arts District.

- Regular concerts begin at 8:00 pm
- Admission and parking are free
- Venue is accessible to those with disabilities
- Audience members may bring blankets, lawn chairs, picnic dinners, and pet dogs on leashes
- Concessions are available
- Door prizes are given away at each concert
- Tax-deductible donations are accepted at each concert, by mail, or online
